

THE FRENCH CONVERSATION CLASS

Harken, you Gratzonians, for here's the quickest way
To have a real French accent in each French word that you say,
"C'est très remarquable" when you part your lips to speak
If the Conversation Class you visit twice a week.

As they learn to "parler" well within Room Three-O-Nine,
Four and twenty pupils always have the grandest time
Speaking French, pronouncing French in such a perfect way
That others have no need to ask them, "Parlez-vous français?"

With no preparation and no written work in class
Never do they need to worry whether they will pass,
But their major French improves as, with a smile, they say
They "joined the Conversation Class to "parler" in "français."
